The 25-foot lot in Block 5 is on the car line, and will make an excellent business stand.

Many of these lots are on the west side of the streets, and are beautiful sites for handsome homes. Others are well adapted for light manufacturing, or are suitable for small rental purposes.

There is a large, new stable on Lots 25, 26, 27, and 28 in Block E, which could be utilized for business purposes.

Small manufacturers, who are paying high rents, should see this property.

If you do not enjoy grand views, and don't want to be blown away during the hot months, do not bid on those lots on Summit avenue.

No alarm need be felt about the titles to these properties, as the Court required the commissioner to investigate them. And he has approved them.

Houses in Barton Heights have heen in great demand this spring, and the town is on a more substantial basis than everbefore. It must not be fore that lots on this side of the valley, with the same advant AT 5 O'CLOCK P. BY AUCTION.

In part execution of a certain deed of trust, dated March 23, 1884, to the under-signed trustees, and duly recorded in the Clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, in Deed-Fook 23

the city of Richmond, in Deed-Book is "B." page 185, we will, at the request of some of the beneficiaries, there having been default in the payment of a portion of the debt secured, sell by public auction, on the premises, respectively, at the times and in the order named below, the PROPERTY above referred to, as follows—to wit: FAIR GROUNDS. ON TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 1897, beginning at 4:30 o'clock P. M., we will of-fer, separately, the THREE DWELLINGS above referred to. These houses are com-paratively new, are attractive in archiabove referred to. These houses are comparatively new, are attractive in architecture and arrangement, are well finished, and are supplied with all modern conveniences; and in location, being within a stone's throw of Monroe Park, are as well situated as could be desired.

The lots upon which they stand front about 24 feet each, and run back 149 feet 8 inches to an alley in the rear.

These residences are well deserving the attention of persons desiring homes at moderate prices, while in location, capacity, and appointments they are almost equal to anything on this favored street.

And, on WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1897, WEDNESDAY, MAY 5th, AT 12 O'CLOCK

by the holders of a majority in interest of said bonds, we will, on WEDNESDAY, MAY 5th, AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON, in front of said property, on Broad street, in the city of Richmond, Va., sell that portion of said TRACT OF LAND known as the Fair-Grounds, containing about thirty-one acres, or so much thereof as may be necessary to execute the trust, situated adjacent to and northwest of the city of Richmond, fronting on the north line of Broad street and extending northerly to the land of the Richmond, Frescricksburg and Potomac railroad, and bounded on the east by the land of Winfield Scott and others.

This property has a great future, and the society has platted it to conform, as far as practicable, to the plan of the city, and lots will be divided up and offered for sale in lots of 20 feet front, thereby enabling bidders of moderate means to supply their wants. That portion of the tract along the line of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad will be offered in large parcels, suitable for manufacturing and other business purposes. If the sale is not completed on the day named it will be continued from day to day at the hour named until the whole debt due shall have been provided for, and if the said thirty-one acres shall not sell for a sum sufficient to execute said trust, the balance of the tract, which contains an aggregate of 58 3-4 acres, more or less, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold on May 12, 1897, commencing at the hour named. This property lies entirely outside of the city limits, which should commend it most strongly to investors, as it will probably be many years before city taxes will have to be paid thereon.

A map of the property, as sub-divided, can be seen at the office of the auctioneer or of the president of the society.

"TERM OF SALE: One third cash, and balance in equal payments at six, tweive, and eighteen months, with interest added; the deferred payments to be evidenced by negotiable notes and secured by a trust deed on the property.

JOHN SKELTON WILLIAMS, C WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1897, weddenstands at 5 o'clock P. M., we will offer separately, those FOUR ATTRACTIVE LOTS, fronting 30 feet each, by a dept of 150 feet to a 20-foot alley, situated of the south side of Monument, avenue out west Franklin street) a short distance east of Lee Circle. These are among the most desirable lots in this delightful section, and present opportunities for securing choice home sites, or a handsome speculation in the near future. See the auctioneer for particulars.
